

GENEVA CENTRE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CONTROL OF ARMED FORCES (DCAF)

---

Human Rights First

and

The Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces (DCAF)

invite you to a briefing on

Holding Military and Security Contractors Accountable: the Call for a Global Code of Conduct

10 a.m. Wednesday, October 28th, at 2362-A Rayburn House Office Building,
Washington D.C.

*****

Concerned about the gap in international standards and norms for the provision of private security services? Come learn more about the how the United States can play a leading role in the development of a global Code of Conduct to better regulate and hold private security contractors accountable.

Key-Note Speaker/Introduction:

- The Honorable David Price (D-NC)

Moderator:

- Hans Born, DCAF

Panelists:

- Nils Rosemann, Human Security & Business, Swiss Department Foreign Affairs
- Anne-Marie Buzatu, Project Coordinator, DCAF
- Devon Chaffee, Advocacy Counsel, Human Rights First
- Doug Brooks, President IPOA
- Susan Burke, Attorney, Burke O'Neil LLC