

Police Assistance Project on Strategic Reform Capacities of the National Police of Ukraine (PSRC-NPU)

Project Background

The Global Affairs Canada (GAC) has commissioned the Geneva Centre for Security Sector Governance (DCAF) to implement the PSRC-NPU. GAC supports the NPU's efforts to increase its efficiency and effectiveness as a professional and well-equipped body able to adapt to any social or security challenge.

The Project is part of DCAF's Europe and Central Asia - Police Programme, which assists national law enforcement actors to effectively implement and/or support inclusive and participatory reforms aimed at enhancing security sector governance

Beneficiary: National Police of Ukraine (NPU)

International partners: GAC and DCAF

Implementing Agency: DCAF

Duration of project: Three (3) years

Project Team

- Program Manager

- Head of Project Office

- Project Officer

- National Expert

-Interpreter and Translator

-Administrative and Finance Officer

How much does the project cost?

Budget: 2.426.065 CAD

GAC contribution: 2.211.400 CAD

DCAF contribution: 214.665 CAD

What are the aims of the PSRC-NPU?

- Provide high-level expert backstopping to advise on developing and implementing reforms
- Increase the capacities of the NPU's strategic planning units and stakeholders
- Assist the NPU to further develop mechanisms to review, evaluate, and sustain reforms
- Support the NPU's ability to integrate a gender perspective into the delivery of policing services
- Provide tailored upskilling opportunities to enhance the knowledge and skills of the NPU staff in strategic and change management, and be a source of support and advice for those taking on new leadership positions
- Assist the NPU in upholding its mission, vision, and values to earn public trust

PSRC-NPU Project

Overall Aim: improved security supporting peace, democratic governance, rule of law, and respect for human rights

Main Objective: create mechanisms to give NPU the capacity to plan, implement, monitor, and review reforms

Timeline

Canada has been a member of DCAF since 2003. The Government of Canada provides continuous support to the Security Sector Reform in Ukraine. Canadian sponsored initiatives include the Canadian Police Mission in Ukraine (CPMU), the Canada-Ukraine Police Development Project (CUPDP), and the new Police Assistance Project on Strategic Reform Capacities of the National Police of Ukraine (PSRC-NPU).

