

Migration, Integrated Land and Maritime Border Management, and Security Sector Governance in South Asia

© Edward Paterson, Unsplash

Climate-, conflict- and COVID-19-induced migration/mobility and its effect on land and maritime border management in South Asia.

Click here to register.

Click here for programme information.

09:00-10:45 CET
(Geneva time)
3 November 2021

Migration, Integrated Land and Maritime Border Management and SSG in South Asia

Themes

Speakers will discuss national perspectives on the following questions:

How has migration associated with conflict, climate change and COVID-19 affected land and maritime border security?

What are the current challenges and opportunities for comprehensive land and maritime border management?

How does land and maritime border governance affect border communities and migrant communities?

Can multi-stakeholder approaches bridge gaps between national and regional responses to border management and security?

Speakers

Jagath Priyashantha Premaratne, Former Rear Admiral RSP, Sri Lanka

Dr Pushpita Das, Coordinator of the Internal Security Centre and Research Fellow, Manohar Parrikar Institute for Defence Studies and Analyses, India

Captain Sarabjeet S Parmar, Executive Director, National Maritime Foundation, India

Abu Salah Md. Yousuf, Senior Research Fellow, Bangladesh Institute of International and Strategic Studies, Bangladesh

Rabi Raj Thapa, Former Additional Inspector General of Armed Police Force, Nepal

Angela Mackay, Independent Consultant, Gender and Border Management

Upasana Garoo, Project Officer, Asia-Pacific Unit, Geneva Centre for Security Sector Governance (Moderator)

