

How the police in Latin America are dealing with Gender-based Violence during COVID-19

WEBINAR

PANELISTS

Commissioner Sulma Reyes

Head of Gender and Equality
Division - National Police of Honduras

Tecnl DEAP Jannet Montecinos

Head of the National Gender Department National Police of Bolivia

Commissioner MAPP
Norma Enciso Osorio

Head of Human Rights -
National Police of Paraguay

Lieutenant Colonel
Alejandro Castro

Head of Human Rights
Inspectorate General -
National Police of Colombia

Major Jesús Díaz

Advisor to the School of Continuing Education -
National Police of Peru

Min. Víctor Ortiz Aguilar

Director General of Policy and Development, Secretariat of Security and Citizen Protection of Mexico

Commissioner Williams
Lemus

Human Rights and Gender Equity Department Investigation Police of Chile

The different public health measures adopted to address the current pandemic have had, in some contexts, unexpected impacts on the victims of gender-based violence. This situation has had to be attended to, prevented and controlled by the police forces through different strategies amid the health crisis. Join us in this webinar held in the framework of the commemoration of the Day of Non-Violence against Women.

25 Nov 2020

08:00 (Honduras-Mexico)
09:00 (Colombia-Perú)
10:00 (Bolivia)
11:00 (Paraguay-Chile)
15:00 (Switzerland)

Register: Click here

SIMULTANEOUS TRANSLATION
ENGLISH <-> SPANISH